

*3753.—Clerical Appointments at R.M. Establishments.

(N.R.M. 16558/18.—28.11.1918.)

Non-commissioned Officers and men of the Royal Marines who are desirous of volunteering for Clerical Appointments at the various Royal Marine Establishments, after the war, are to submit their names to the Commandant of the Division concerned through their Commanding Officer, who will say whether they can be recommended.

2. The qualifications of the N.C. Officers and men, and the Departments for which they are desirous of volunteering, are to be stated in each case. Service Certificates will be forwarded to the R.M. Division concerned.
