

806.—Royal Marine Gunners to be allowed to qualify in Navigation.

(C.W. 8884.—29.11.1912.)

The names of Royal Marine Gunners who pass the Educational Test Examination in accordance with Article 313bA of the King's Regulations (Addenda 1911) may be placed on the list from which the final selection is made of the officers to be appointed to the School of Navigation, with a view to being allowed to qualify in Navigating duties.