420/78. UNIFORM — RN RATINGS — BADGES FOR THE ELECTRONIC WARFARE SUB-BRANCH OF THE OPERATIONS BRANCH (U)

[N/STE115/77]

1. Admiralty Board approval has been given for the introduction of new badges for the Electronic Warfare Sub-branch of the Operations branch.
2. The new badge will comprise a device of 'crossed lightning flashes superimposed upon two atomic ellipses' and will replace the design at present shared with the Radar Sub-branch.
3. The badges will be introduced by gratuitous issue to serving EW-trained ratings, and a further DCI RN will be issued when the new ranges are available for issue. Production lead times are such that it is likely to be early 1979 before all deliveries are received from manufacturers.
