

(U)716.—Uniform—Badges—Seacat Aimers
(N/V 54/1/66—7 Jun 1968)

1. A badge has been introduced for wear by ratings qualified as Seacat Aimers and is to be awarded on satisfactory completion of the qualifying course. The badge represents a Seacat missile with the nose pointed upwards to "ten o'clock". It is to be worn on the right cuff, as for other skill badges, in accordance with BR 81 (Uniform Regulations) Articles 0438.2 and 0441.
2. Qualified Seacat Aimers serving on 1st May 1968, and those qualifying thereafter, are to be given an initial gratuitous issue of 1 No gold and 1 No red badges, together with 2 No blue embroidered badges when provided with tropical clothing.
3. The badges are now available from SVSO South Western Area, Royal William Yard, Plymouth. Vocabulary Nos are as follows:—
 - 30412 Seacat Aimer, embroidered blue on white
 - 31412 Seacat Aimer, embroidered gold on blue
 - 32412 Seacat Aimer, embroidered red on blue.
4. BR 81 and BR 1246 (Victualling Stores Rate Book) will be amended.

(BRs 81 and 1246)

(BR 93, Victualling Manual, Article 1104)