Dress Regulations N.C.O.'s and Men RMFVR

24. N.C.O.'s and men of the Royal Marine Forces Volunteer Reserve are to wear uniform as laid down for N.C.O.'s and men R.M.

25. Kit scales are laid down in R.M.F.V.R. instructions.

Drill tunic—bar with medals to replace metal ribbon bar.

The length of ribbons is to be so regulated that the lower edge of the Decorations and Medals are in line with the lower edge of the medal having the largest number of clasps. In this case there will not be less than half an inch from the uppermost clasp to the top of the ribbon having the greatest number of clasps.

If no clasps are worn, the lower edges of the Decorations and Medals are to be in line with the lower edge of the innermost medal, the length of the ribbon is to be 1½ inches.

When Medals cannot, on account of their number, be suspended so as to be freely seen, they are to overlap, the senior Decoration or Medal showing in full.

23. Medal Ribbons are to be sewn on blue tunic and on blue and khaki battledress blouses. On the drill tunic ribbons are to be worn on a bar or bars. The ribbons are to be three eighths of an inch in length, sewn in the proper sequence, the senior Decoration or Medal commencing from the inner edge of the top row; they will not overlap and when there is not sufficient room to wear them in one row they will be worn in two or more rows, the bottom edge of the lowest row being half an inch above the upper edge of the pocket with a quarter of an inch interval between rows. The ribbons will be sewn centrally above the button of the pocket flap but there will be a space of not less than an inch between outer ribbon and the sleeve seam. When two or more rows are worn, the upper rows will be completed last. When there is a smaller number of ribbons in the second or subsequent rows the shorter rows will be arranged centrally above the button of the pocket flap.

26. Metal shoulder titles "RMFVR" are to be worn in place of letters "RM."

27. Woven arm badges "Royal Marine Forces Volunteer Reserve" are to be worn in place of woven arm badges "Royal Marines."
