NAVAL OFFICERS & RATINGS

SECTION 1

DETAILS OF RANK/RATE

& OTHER DISTINGUISHING INSIGNIA

0301. DISTINCTION MARKS OF RANK - SLEEVE LACE

1. The distinguishing marks of rank worn on the sleeves of the ceremonial day coat, reefer jacket, blue mess jacket and, the tail coat worn by captains and above, consist of rows of gold lace with a circle (or 'curl') on the top or only row, right round each cuff as follows:

Admiral of the Fleet	4 rows of 13mm lace above a band of 50mm lace.
Admiral	3 rows of 13mm lace above a band of 50mm lace.
Vice-Admiral	2 rows of 13mm lace above a band of 50mm inch lace.
Rear-Admiral	1 row of 13mm lace above a band of 50mm lace.
Commodore	A band of 42mm lace with a circle of 13mm lace.
Captain	4 rows of 13mm lace.
Commander	3 rows of 13mm lace.
Lieutenant Commander	2 rows of 13mm lace with a row of 6mm lace between.
Lieutenant	2 rows of 13mm lace.
Sub Lieutenant	1 row of 13mm lace.

2. For Rear-Admirals and above the circle is 50mm in diameter, for other officers 45mm. For Commodores the circle is sewn immediately above the centre of the broad band, for other officers it is formed out of the upper row of lace with the upper part of the curl leading to the rear.

3. The space between the rows is to be 6mm.

4. The distance of the bottom edge of the lace from the cuff depends on the length of the sleeve and the amount of lace. The following distances are suitable for sleeves of average length:

Admiral of the Fleet	35mm
Admiral	45mm
Vice-Admiral	55 mm
Rear-Admiral and Captain	65mm
Commodore, Commander and Lieutenant	75mm
Lieutenant	80mm
Sub Lieutenant	90mm

0302. DISTINGUISHING MARKS ON SHOULDER RANK BOARDS AND SLIDES

1. Flag Officers wear shoulder rank boards, as illustrated at the Annex B to Chapter 3, with silver devices superimposed on 50mm gold lace on the ceremonial day coat, greatcoat, white tunic, bush jacket and white mess jacket. On short sleeved white shirts, shoulder boards with either silver devices or rank lace may be worn as appropriate. On other garments which are fitted with shoulder flaps, such as the jersey and long sleeved shirt, they wear shoulder rank slides with rank markings as sleeve lace.

2. All other officers wear the same rank markings on shoulder rank boards and slides as for sleeve lace.

0303. MIDSHIPMEN

1. Midshipmen wear a white 'turnback' at each collar on blue uniform jackets. A similar but smaller white turnback is featured on shoulder rank boards and slides. The button is to be removed from shoulder rank slides when they are worn with flying clothing.

0304. NEW ENTRY OFFICERS AT BRNC AND YOUNG OFFICERS UNDER TRAINING

1. New entry officers wear white 'flashes' on the upper sleeve of blue uniform jackets and on shoulder flaps with rank slides to identify them as being under training. This badge is removed at different stages of training depending upon specialisation. Full details are contained in relevant DCIs.

0305. QARNNS OFFICERS

1. QARNNS officers wear the same uniforms and rank insignia as RN officers, but with the following differences:

a. Capes. Rank markings for female officers are worn on the right hand side of the cape in the angle formed by the scarlet piping. The markings display the appropriate RN officers rank below Queen Alexandra's insignia.

b. Queen Alexandra's insignia. On blue uniform jackets, rank lace is surmounted by a separate Queen Alexandra's monogram in red and gold superimposed on a foul anchor in gold, it is worn on both sleeves, positioned centrally 5mm above the circle in the uppermost row of rank lace.

d. The metal and enamel badge showing Queen Alexandra's monogram. On a foul anchor, is worn 38mm above the left breast pocket of the white ward coat and bush jacket and on the left lapel immediately above any medal ribbons on the white mess jacket.

- f. Belts. Unboned black petersham belts, fastened with belt plate, are worn on blue ward dresses.

0306. RNR OFFICERS

- 1. RNR officers wear the same uniform as regular officers but with a letter 'R' in gold inside the curl of rank lace or embroidered rank insignia.

0307. SCC AND CCF(RN) OFFICERS

- 1. These officers wear the same uniform as RN except that waved rows of 10mm gold distinction lace with a waved curl on the uppermost row are worn. The Lieutenant Commanders narrow stripe is 3mm wide, waved and spaced 10mm from the outside stripes.

0308. DISTINCTION CLOTH AND CIVILIAN OFFICERS

- 1. Medical and Dental officers wear a stripe of distinction cloth in the interval or intervals between the lace worn on cuff and shoulder insignia and below a single row of lace. Colours are:

Medical	Scarlet
Dental	Orange

When required to wear uniform, civilian officers wear the uniform prescribed for naval officers of equivalent rank with green distinction cloth between the lace.

0309. AIGUILLETTES

- 1. Aiguillettes (plain gold wire, gimp or gimp and orris as appropriate) are worn on the right shoulder with Number 1A, 1B, 2A and 2B dresses on all formal occasions by the following:

Admirals of the Fleet.

Officers holding the posts of Vice and Rear Admirals of the United Kingdom.

Personal Aides-de-Camp to The Queen.

Aides-de-Camp to The Queen.

Naval Equerries to the The Queen or to members of the Royal Family.

Honorary Physicians, Surgeons, Dental Surgeons and Nursing Sisters to the Queen.

Defence Service Secretary.

Officers appointed as Aides-de-Camp or Comptrollers to a Governor General.

Aide-de-Camp to the Lord High Commissioner to the General Assembly to the Church of Scotland.

- 2. Board type aiguillettes (gold with navy blue flecks, miniature silver anchors on metal tags) are worn on the right shoulder by:

Naval Members of the Defence Council

Naval Members of the Admiralty Board

- 3. Staff type aiguillettes (gold with navy blue flecks) are worn on the right shoulder by:

Naval Assistant to the Secretary of State for Defence
Officers appointed as Aides-de-Camp to a Governor or Lieutenant Governor.

- 4. Staff type aiguillettes (gold with navy blue flecks) are worn on the left shoulder by:

Personal staffs of Service members of the Defence Council and VCDS.

Secretaries and Naval Assistants to Naval Members of the Admiralty Board.

The Flag Lieutenant to the Admiralty Board, Secretaries, Flag Lieutenants and Aides-de-Camp to:

2SL/CinC Naval Home Command

CinC Fleet

Flag Officer Naval Aviation

Flag Officer Surface Flotilla

Flag Officer Submarines

Commander UK Task Group

Flag Officer Sea Training

Flag Officer Scotland, Northern England and Northern Ireland

Commandant General Royal Marines

Secretary to CBF Gibraltar (when a Naval Officer)

Secretary to CBNS Washington.

5. Staff type aiguillettes are also worn on the left shoulder by Personal staff of the Chairman of the Military Committee,

NATO

Secretary and Flag Lieutenant to UKMILREP, NATO

Executive Assistant and Flag Lieutenant to DEPSACLANT

Secretary and Flag Lieutenant to COS to COMNAVOUTH

Secretary of SACLANT REP EUR

Staff of Secretary of State for Defence

Head of BDS Washington

Defence and Naval Attaches

Assistant Defence and Naval Attaches

Service Advisers and Assistant Advisers to HM High
Commissions in Commonwealth capitals

6. Board or staff type aiguillettes may not be worn concurrently with ADC's or Equerries aiguillettes. For instance, a member of the Admiralty Board or Naval Attaché who is also an ADC to The Queen wears the aiguillette appropriate to the latter appointment.

7. 'Formal Occasions' are defined as those when swords or decorations are worn and when particular formality is called for outside the normal day-to-day routine of work or practice.

0310. ROYAL CYPHERS

1. The Royal Cypher is available in large, small and miniature sizes. It is worn by:

Admirals of the Fleet

Officers holding the posts of Vice and Rear Admirals of the United Kingdom

Aides-de-Camp to The Queen

Honorary Physicians, Surgeons, Dental Surgeons, Nursing Sisters and Chaplains to The Queen

Naval Equerries to The Queen Commodore Royal Yachts Defence Services Secretary

2. In the cases of Personal Aides-de-Camp to The Queen, First and Principal Naval and Flag Aides-de-Camp to The Queen, the officers concerned continue to wear the Cypher after relinquishing the appointment. If he or she has held the appointment under more than one Sovereign then the Cypher of each shall be worn.

3. The large Cypher is worn on aiguillette shoulder straps, including the additional strap worn with the broad riband or collar of orders.

4. The small Cypher is worn on both shoulder boards of the greatcoat, and all white and khaki uniforms and on the shoulder rank slides worn with jerseys. It is placed at the foot of the gold lace for officers of Flag rank and superimposed on the lowest row of lace for other officers, with the bottom of the Cypher even with the lower edge of lace. For chaplains the Cypher should be 0.32cm above the bottom edge of the shoulder strap. The chaplains insignia is placed immediately above the Cypher.

5. The miniature Cypher is worn on the metal tags of aiguillettes by Personal Aides-de-Camp, Equerries and Extra Equerries to The Queen, and the Defence Service Secretary.

6. Personal Aides-de-Camp wear the small Cypher on all shoulder boards and soft rank insignia.

7. When the Cyphers of more than one Sovereign are worn, the small Cypher shall be worn in each case.

0311. BADGES WORN BY OFFICERS

1. The cap badge shall be worn in the centre of the cap front, sewn to the detachable braid band. The cloth background shall follow the outline of the badge and be trimmed no closer than 5mm to the embroidery of the badge.

2. The beret badge, which is to be of standard issue metal variety, shall be worn over the left eye in the manner illustrated at in Chapter 2.

3. Flying badges comprising pilot's and observer's wings and, additionally, aircrewman's wings worn by officers who qualified for them as ratings, are worn as follows:

a. Blue uniform. Sewn to the centre of the left sleeve of the reefer jacket and mess jacket, 6mm above the circle in the uppermost row of rank lace and in the corresponding place in the case of midshipmen. Officers who wish, may at their option, wear miniature flying badges on the sleeve of the mess jacket.

b. White tunics, bush jackets and khaki/stone coloured uniform. Fixed with 'pin and clutch' attachment 38mm centrally above the left breast pocket. If medals or medal ribbons are worn, the badge is to be worn centrally above the medals or top row of ribbons. On the white mess jacket, miniature wings are worn centrally on the left lapel over miniature medals.

4. Submarine badges are worn as follows:

a. Blue uniforms. On the left breast of the reefer jacket between the lapel and the shoulder, horizontal, level with the point of the lapel. The badge should sit 6mm above medal ribbons or medals. On the mess jacket, a miniature badge is worn on the left lapel, 25mm below the point of the lapel, 6mm above miniature medals.

- b. White tunics, bush jackets and khaki/stone coloured uniform. As for flying badges.

0312. BADGES WORN BY WARRANT OFFICERS, SENIOR AND JUNIOR RATINGS

1. Warrant Officers wear the Royal Arms on both cuffs of the blue reefer jacket with the bottom of the badge 127mm from the end of the sleeve. A smaller version of the same badge is worn on the optional mess jacket.
2. Shoulder rank slides with the Royal Arms are provided for Warrant Officers to wear with bush jackets, jerseys, AWD, shirts and raincoats.
3. An anodised version of the Royal Arms badge is worn on both sleeves of the white tunic and mess jacket with the bottom edge of the badge 127mm above the end of the sleeve.
4. Chief Petty Officers are distinguished by three buttons worn horizontally on each cuff of the blue reefer jacket and white tunic, 127mm from the bottom of the sleeve. In addition, branch badges are worn on the lapel of blue reefer jackets, that on the right lapel being the normal branch badge, that on the left its mirror image. Identical buttons shall be worn on the optional blue mess jacket.
5. Shoulder rate slides with a badge comprising laurel leaves around a foul anchor surmounted by a crown are provided for wear on white uniforms, jerseys, shirts, AWD and raincoats.
6. Branch badges on AWD and overalls are worn over the left breast pocket.
7. Petty Officers wear a badge comprising crossed foul anchors surmounted by a crown on the left arm of blue reefer jacket and a smaller version on the optional mess jacket. Branch badges are worn on the right arm, but not on the optional mess jacket. The centre of the rate and branch badges is to be mid way between the point of the shoulder and the point of the elbow, sewn centrally onto the sleeve.
8. Shoulder rate slides with the embroidered rate insignia are worn in the same manner as Chief Petty Officer.
9. Leading Hands wear a badge comprising a single foul anchor on the left sleeve of the Class II jumper. It and the skill and branch badges are worn as for petty officers.
10. Shoulder rate slides consisting of a foul anchor woven in gold are worn on the jersey, AWD, shirts and raincoats.

11. Leading Regulators and Regulating Petty Officers wear a badge comprising a crown on the right sleeve of their white short-sleeve shirt. When wearing the white long sleeve shirt RPOs wear the same design as a tie pin.

Masters at Arms wear a badge comprising laurel leaves supporting a crown as a brassard on their right wrist.

12. Able Rates and below A shoulder Rate Badge will be introduced in 1999

0313. ARTIFICERS AND COMMUNICATIONS TECHNICIANS

1. These ratings will wear no branch badges.

0314. GOOD CONDUCT BADGES

1. These are represented by V-shaped stripes, 12.5mm in width at the perpendicular and 127mm across the top of the V, and are worn on the left arm by entitled ratings below the rate of Chief Petty Officer. When worn without a rate badge, the centre of the device is to be midway between the point of the shoulder and the point of the elbow. When more than one Good Conduct Badge is worn, the distance between them at the perpendicular is to be 12.7mm.

0315. STARS AND CROWNS

1. These are added to the basic branch and specialist qualification badges to indicate certain classes of qualification as follows:
 - a. Basic device: on entering a sub-branch.
 - b. Basic device with star above: on qualifying professionally for Able Rate.
 - c. Basic device with star above and star below: on qualifying professionally for Leading Rate.
 - d. Basic device with crown above: on qualifying professionally for Petty Officer.
 - e. Chief Petty Officers attain no additional professional qualification and wear the basic device with crown above.
